

HOLLISTER

EYEWEAR

BRAND OVERVIEW

// MADE FOR CAPTURING MOMENTS,
CREATING MEMORIES AND BEING
UNAPOLOGETICALLY YOU. //

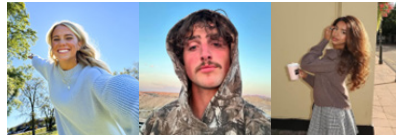

THE BRAND HISTORY

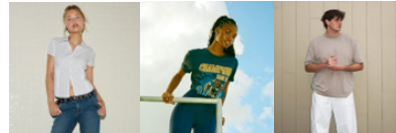

Hollister Co. was founded in 2000 and created by the Abercrombie group. It was known for its laid-back, West Coast, surfer vibe. The brand's clothing was inspired by the Southern California beach lifestyle with effortlessly cool style at an accessible price point. Today their mission is to cement themselves as the go-to apparel destination for teens by outfitting their unique lifestyle needs and solving their clothing problems

THE EYEWEAR FACTS

-  A brand-new approach which offers various sizes ranges in S, M, L all with hybrid fits.
-  Thin high-density acetate reducing the frame weight.
-  Focus on easy to wear collection that's not aimed at the little kids but mindfully designed towards our teen consumers mission.

by the numbers...

AVERAGE OPTICAL PRICING:
WHOLESALE $45, RETAIL $120

why the brand?

SIZE

Each style is sized in Small, Medium, and Large for a unique fit for each teen.

COHESIVE DESIGN ALIGNMENT

Each design, color story, temple logo detail link back to main brand effortlessly.

ELEVATED AESTHETIC

Mindfully designed, the new cool and cost effective collections.

did you know?

A new collegiate graphics collection has launched at Hollister, featuring more than 65 officially licensed graphics. This collection includes crewnecks, hoodies and tees with vintage graphics and university logos for over 30 universities across the country.

- University of Texas
- University of Michigan
- Florida State
- UCLA
- Villanova

HOLLISTER mission.

Our intention is to create a sense of belonging, empowering all voices, generate funding and support key impact partners' missions of providing equitable access to mental health services, education and resources.

MARCOLIN